Title VI Complaint Procedures and Form

A Title VI complaint may be filed by any individual or individuals who allege that they have been subjected to discrimination or adverse impact under any FTA funded program or activity based on race, color, or national origin. The Rose Hill Senior Center adopted Title VI complaint procedures to investigate and track complaints. A formal, signed, written Title VI complaint form must be filed within 180 days of the date of the alleged act of discrimination. A copy of the complaint form is included in on Page 4. The complaint procedures and complaint form are also posted on the Rose Hill Senior Center's website. If information is needed in another language, the complainant can contact 334-615-3740. The statement "If information is needed in another language, contact 334-615-3740" will be posted with the complaint procedures in English and in any other language(s) spoken by LEP populations that meet the Safe Harbor threshold.

Completed complaint forms should be submitted to:

Once the complaint is received, the Rose Hill Senior Center will review it to determine who has jurisdiction. The complainant will receive an acknowledgement letter informing them whether the complaint will be investigated by the Rose Hill Senior Center's office. The Rose Hill Senior Center will only process complaint forms that are complete and signed.

In a situation where the complainant is unable or incapable of providing a written complaint, a verbal complaint of discrimination may be made to the Rose Hill Senior Center. Under these circumstances, the complainant will be interviewed and the Rose Hill Senior Center will assist the complainant in converting the verbal allegations to a formal written complaint.

The Rose Hill Senior Center has 15 business days to investigate the complaint. If more information is needed to resolve the case, the Rose Hill Senior Center may contact the complainant. The complainant has 15 business days from the date of this letter to send requested information to the investigator assigned to the case. If the investigator does not receive the additional information from the complainant within 15 business days, the Rose Hill Senior Center can administratively close the case. A case can also be administratively closed if the complainant no longer wishes to pursue the case.

After the investigator reviews the complaint, they will issue one of two letters to the complainant: a closure letter or a letter of finding (LOF). A closure letter summarizes the allegations and states that there was not a Title VI violation and that the case will be closed. A LOF summarizes the allegations and the interviews regarding the alleged incident and explains whether any disciplinary action, additional training of the accused staff member, or other action will occur. If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision, they have 15 days after the date of the closure letter or the LOF to submit an appeal letter to the Rose Hill Senior Center.

If the complainant is not satisfied with actions taken locally or if they demand further action, the complaint will be referred to:
